

2026 Resolution Submission Information

Resolutions are statements adopted by the caucus to express shared priorities and perspectives. They guide discussion and advocacy but are not binding rules or automatic mandates.

How does the Resolutions process work?

- Resolutions can start at your precinct caucus. You may discuss your resolution with your caucus and adjust it before submitting it online.
- If a resolution is approved at the Larimer County Republican Assembly, it moves on to the Colorado Republican Party State Assembly.
- If it is approved at the state level, it may then be sent to the National Republican Party for consideration.

Who may submit a Resolution?

Any registered Republican in Larimer County who is eligible to participate in the March 3, 2026, precinct caucus may submit a resolution.

What can a Resolution address?

- Resolutions must address statewide or national Republican Party policy (not county-level issues).
- Each resolution must cover one topic only, be clear and concise, be no longer than one page.

Whereas, members of the Republican Party of Colorado increasingly conduct party business from homes where cats are present, attentive, and unimpressed; and

Whereas, cats routinely appear during important discussions, providing calm indifference and reminding everyone that deadlines are aspirational;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that cats be acknowledged as unofficial observers of party operations, offering perspective, patience, and occasional keyboard supervision.

The Resolutions Committee

- The Chair and members of the Resolutions Committee are appointed by the Chair of the Larimer County Republican Party.
- The Committee shall consist of 3 to 9 members, including the Chair, at the discretion of the LCRP Chair.
- All Committee members must be registered Republicans and legal residents of Larimer County.
- Each Committee member has one equal vote when reviewing resolutions.
- A resolution may not be rejected solely because Committee members disagree with its content.
- A Resolution may be rejected if it:
  - Contains slanderous, obscene, or profane language
  - States a complaint without proposing a resolution
  - Is unclear to the extent that a meaningful vote is not possible or contains similar substantive defects
  - Exceeds a single page in length
  - Is submitted as draft legislation or boilerplate statutory language rather than a resolution
- Resolutions approved by a majority of the Committee shall be forwarded to the Larimer County Republican Assembly and Convention.
- The Committee shall not change the meaning or substance of any submitted resolution.
- Similar resolutions may be consolidated into a single resolution, and minor edits for format, spelling, or clarity are permitted.

Notifications and Remedies

- When time permits, the Committee Chair will attempt to notify submitters if a resolution is rejected due to content issues, missing information, improper format, or missed deadlines.
- When time permits, submitters will be notified if their resolution is consolidated with a similar submission.
- Corrections are not guaranteed, and resolutions may be rejected for failure to comply with these rules.
